Some people like going to the theatre while others prefer going to the cinema. Of course, both of them have their advantages and disadvantages. As we live in a huge city, we have five theatres. Three of our theatres open during the whole year. However, two are open in winter only. A great advantage of theatres is that the plays are live and the audience has the opportunity to interact with the actors and actresses. However, the main disadvantage of going to the theatres in our city is that it is necessary to buy tickets in advance. Another disadvantage of the theatre is that it is more expensive than the cinema.

Today, there is a cinema in almost every town. One of the reasons for the popularity of the cinema is that it entertains all types of people, young and old. Because it is so popular, my friends and I go there every week. We prefer to be there on Tuesday because at the weekend, the cinema is too much crowded. At the cinema, we can watch a film on a big screen and sound system is clear.

A good leader needs a clear vision. A vision is a picture of the future. Rana always shares her vision with her team, including Tarek and Lina. She explains the big goal in simple words so everyone understands. Then, she makes a step-by-step plan that breaks the big goal into smaller, easier tasks. This helps the team see progress and stay motivated. Rana reminds her team why their work matters. She connects daily tasks to the big vision, which gives everyone purpose. When challenges come, she stays calm and looks for solutions. If something does not go as planned, Rana does not give up. Instead, she changes the plan and keeps going. She knows that vision without action is just a dream. But with a smart plan, teamwork, and flexibility, that dream can become real and inspire others.

Customs are everyday traditions that reflect a community's culture and values. They may not always be big celebrations, but they play a meaningful role in people's lives. Around the world, customs differ in form but often share the same goal: bringing people together. In Mexico, families honor their loved ones during the Day of the Dead by decorating graves with flowers and candles. In China, the Lunar New Year is celebrated by cleaning homes, wearing new clothes, and giving red envelopes filled with money to children for good luck. In Egypt, hospitality is a long-standing custom—guests are warmly welcomed with a lot of food, tea, or coffee, showing generosity and respect. Although these customs come from different cultures, they all express universal values like love and respect. Mohamed Salah was born in a small village in Egypt in 1992. From a young age, he showed great interest in football. Salah spent hours practicing with a ball in the streets of his village. By the time he joined El Mokawaloon, he had already trained for many years with great dedication and patience. His hard work finally paid off when he signed with FC Basel in Switzerland—it was the start of his international journey. Salah later played for Chelsea, Roma, and Liverpool, where he achieved incredible success. He scored record-breaking goals, won the Champions League, and was named one of the best footballers in the world. Beyond football, Salah became a role model for millions. Egyptians call him "the humble star" because he never forgot where he came from. Mohamed Salah's story teaches us that success comes from hard work, faith, and kindness. He had faced many challenges, but he never gave up—and that's why he remains a true Egyptian hero.

Polar bears live in the Arctic, where it is very cold and icy all year round. They have thick white fur and a layer of fat under their skin to stay warm. Their large, wide paws help them walk on snow and swim in icy water. Polar bears are excellent swimmers and can swim for many miles. They mostly eat seals, which they catch near holes in the ice. Because of climate change, the sea ice is melting earlier each year. This makes it harder for polar bears to find food. Scientists say polar bears could be at risk if the ice keeps disappearing. Mother polar bears take care of their cubs in snow holes during winter. Cubs stay with their mothers for about two years to learn how to hunt and survive.

3. Read the following text, then answer the questions:

Traditions are very important in people's lives because they connect the present with the past. They are customs and habits that are passed from parents to children from one generation to another. Traditions help people understand their history and feel proud of their culture and identity.

Traditions play an important role in strengthening family and social relationships. During traditional celebrations and festivals, family members and friends gather together, share meals, and enjoy special activities. This helps create strong bonds and happy memories.

Traditions also teach important values such as respect, cooperation, and responsibility. Children learn how to respect elders, care for others, and follow rules through traditions. In addition, traditions help keep society united and organized. Learning about traditions in different countries helps people respect other cultures and accept differences. In conclusion, traditions are not only old customs, but they are an essential part of building strong families, united communities, and a peaceful society.

Dr. Aisha Abd El Rahman is one of the most famous writers in Egyptian and Arab culture. She wrote many books and articles on cultural and religious matters. She also wrote poetry, and for 50 years, she wrote regularly in the newspaper Al Ahram. People admired Dr. Aisha for her courage in promoting women's rights.

Dr. Aisha was born in 1913. Her father was a well-known sheikh. Aisha used to go with him to religious meetings, where she learned to read and write. Her father was against the education of women, and her mother couldn't read or write. Her mother and grandfather persuaded Dr. Aisha's father to let her go to school. Later, she wrote under the pen-name of Bint El Shatei.

People considered it wrong for women to write in the press or take part in public life. The pen-name Bint El Shatei was taken by Dr. Aisha as a sign of respect to her father. Dr. Aisha worked at Cairo University as a research assistant in the Faculty of Arts. People today still read Dr. Aisha's books.

Dr. Aisha Abd El Rahman is one of the most famous writers in Egyptian and Arab culture. She wrote many books and articles on cultural and religious matters. She also wrote poetry, and for 50 years, she wrote regularly in the newspaper Al Ahram. People admired Dr. Aisha for her courage in promoting women's rights.

Dr. Aisha was born in 1913. Her father was a well-known sheikh. Aisha used to go with him to religious meetings, where she learned to read and write. Her father was against the education of women, and her mother couldn't read or write. Her mother and grandfather persuaded Dr. Aisha's father to let her go to school. Later, she wrote under the pen-name of Bint El Shatei.

People considered it wrong for women to write in the press or take part in public life. The pen-name Bint El Shatei was taken by Dr. Aisha as a sign of respect to her father. 3. Read the following text, then answer the questions: (6 Marks)

Buying and selling is a vital part of our everyday activities. People used to do this long ago in traditional markets. However, shopping habits have changed a lot over the years. In the past, you could deal directly with a person, ask for advice, and check the quality of the product yourself. Buying and selling today depend heavily on a lot of online activities. First, you must log on the internet and choose the price, the quality, and the time of delivery. You must provide correct and clear information to get your product. When there is a problem, you must fill in a form describing it clearly. An online assistant will contact you, but it may take a long time to get a reply. The biggest problem is that some companies can't be reached easily because they may be far away from you. To buy online safely, you must be careful about your personal information. You must keep it secret and deal only with trusted online companies.

A) Choose the correct answer:

- The best title for the passage is
a) Traditional Markets b) Online Shopping c) Selling Cars d) Computers
- The underlined word "it" refers to the
